CANCEROU

ULCERS Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins it destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without lump on mylower lip. The doctor can exist without some predisposing internal cause that terised it but another came and broken has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body signs of the disease have been seen will continue to spread and eat deeper sines. JOCKEY THREW RACE AWAY FOR ETHYLENE.

Fast Daughter of Ethel Gray Was Taken Into Deep Going and Foundling Beat Her.

SATIN COAT'S FINE EFFORT.

Little Black Horse Won From Good Field in Fifth Event-Kiss Quick Benten at a Short Price.

Had C. Bonner not taken Ethylene, a 1to-1 faverite, backed from even money, into the soft and slow going near the rail of the Delmar race track, the favorite could not have lost the fourth race to Foundling, the 2-to-1 second choice, yesterday, The other two starters, Port Royal and Overstreet, were besten off. Foundling set the pare at a fast cltp, closely followed by Ethylene. At the three-cighths pole Foundling weakened a bit and Ethylene gained ground fast. Here Walsh put Foundling under pressure. By a vigorous shake of the tail the filly schnowledged the drive. Still Ethylene closed, and it seemed that she was winning easily. Foundling was working hard, while the bay filly was rollicking along in her easy and inimitable

At the stretch entry Bonner threw the race away. The rain of the previous night had made the track very slow, it dried out a good deal in the center, while the deep. soft going on the rail was very wet and slow. Honner was outside of Foundling turning for home. He could have chosen his own going. Strange to say, he chose to cut into the soft track near the rall. Walsh on Foundling saw the error, and at once closed in in order to keep Bonner in the hole. Ethylene answered a drive gamely and came fast and was only beaten a neck. The bad going cost her at least three lengths. Had Bonner kept her in the center of the track she could not have lost.

After the race those who had backed Ethylene said ugly inings about the ride. While it is probable that Honner did not know enough to take the good going others seemed to think that he deliberately threw the race away. They urged in support of this view that the boy is dissatisfied with the contract which binds him to Martin & Patton, who own Ethylene, and that he does not care about riding for them. Certain it is that the race was a had one for the boy, who is a smart negre had. tain it is that the race was a had one for the boy, who is a smart negre had.

Port Royal, the Eastern horse, looked low in flesh, high on bone, weak and worn, but the bettors would play him just because he ran fast on fast Eastern tracks. They disregarded The Republic's warning about the relative speed of Eastern and Western tracks. The horse that can run at Delmar in 142 can run at Saratogn in 129. Port Royal's races in the East were run about 146 to the mile, with good jockeys, like Shaw up. He is a sulker, a bad actor, in low fieth, and is generally a had betting proposition.

KISS QUICK BAD AT SHORT PRICE. The racing in the other events was uneventful. Kiss Quick, who could heat good horses when a 10-to-1 shot, when she, Kiss Quick was a 1-to-1 favorite. Sister Sarah and Kiss Quick were well up all the way. Battiste seemed to do fairty well by the

Battiste seemed to do fairiy well by the Linden Elia showed consideable improvement in the last race, and won in a gul-lop. Burnett's Walkaway ran a good race, but Linden Ella liked the going better than he did, and drew away at the end. Zazel is he did, and drew away at the end. Zazel is too heavy-headed a brute for Sayers to ride. He took her in the deep going, gave her a weak ride and could not make her run in the stretch. She wants a fust track to do her best work. The track suited Cherished, and she ran a good race, going from last place to second in the last mile. Linder Ella's improvement was out of line. Bookmaker Carr bid her up $300 over her entered selling price of $400, and got her.

her entered selling price of $40, and got her.

Satin Coat rumped home in the fifth race at a mile and seven yards. W. B. Gates was heavily played, as was Barchus Gates seemed to be without a chance on his last race, but he was played as he always is Barkylite and Varro set the pace to the stretch entry. Here Satin Coat closed up fast and won, going away. Verro ran a good race, and was second, with Barklite third. Gates, very poorly managed by Miller, was fourth. Barchus, who was taken in the bad going, all the way and given a very weak ride, was fifth, Last time out Baccus ran the fastest mile run on the track this season.

pole. Bonner had his choice of going in the stretch. He deliberately took the filly into the deep, slow going on the rail when every lookey that rode yesterday was looking for the fast going in the center of the track. Then he did not set her down until she struck the final eighth pole. Walsh had been bluffing on Foundling and had something left when challenged.

Bonner's ride on Ethylene was very bad. The boy is but a little plantation negro and probably is not and never will be a good rider. Still Walsh is no Wilhe Martin himself.

Wagner and she beat him, coming from behind. I thought I to I would be a good price against Louis Wagner in here. Sinter Sarah was only taken off the furm a mouth work prior to this race was 1:2 for six furlongs. She is a poor worker. The track to-her.

Though warned that Port Royal was a mean-tempered horse, and though they could see that he was low in flesh, many good rider. Still Walsh is no Wilhe Martin himself.

They say that since Bonner has been trying to abrogate his contract with his present employers, he has not been riding well, especially upon the horses of his stable. This is hardly true. Yet it is certain that the boy has not been riding as well as he was prior to the time he became dissatisfied with the conditions of his servitude. A suspension of a month or so might bring him back to earth.

It has been said that Kiss Quick has won more races at a long price than any horse about St. Louis. This is probably true. She about St. Louis. This is probably true. She is evidently in no danger of earning a reputation as a short-priced winner. Strange it was that, though she looked like a 3-to-5 shot yewerday—and the race proved and she war, as far as the apparent ante-post contenders went—she went up from 3 to 2 to 3 to 1, though she was heavily played at 3 to 1. Battiste's rides have been so indifferent now and then that many people who played Kiss Quick at 3 to 2 got nervous and hedged out. Battiste's ride looked well enough. He has been more energitle at times, but a boy cannot be in first-cass form on every horse he rides. He got her off well, rated her in nice position—save for a moment at the three-eighths polemade his run at the right time, and though he seemed to be riding weakly at the eighth pole he wound up hammering away hard and would have won in another stride. As the horses went to the post the writer seemed to be frame wearanted a very eighth and would have won in another suride. No complaint coming on the fide.

As the horses went to the post the writer remarked to Handicapper Maginn that Kins Quote was 2 to 1, and said that the betting looked that Mr. Maginn then began an eaborate argument about the chances of Master Marier. Simil and Optimo, and why to 1 was the right price. When asked it that field Mr. Maginn could not say, Kins Quick beat Wagner has I not a previous race. Thou Wagner beat Hilee, Father Wentker and Four Leaf C. and If You Dare next the four Leaf C. and If You Dare next the four Leaf C. and Republic, which tipped this 4-bol shot to be shot as far as Sinf, Optimo and Master Marier were concerned, No one thought of Saster Sarah, save The Republic, which tipped this 4-bol shot to be shot and a 4-bol shot within three inches of each other.

Last week Kiss Quick beat Louis Wagner beat Huee, If You Dare, Four Leaf C. and Fatered and Miss Mas Day, and came into the stretch five lengths behind them. Yesterday she could not outrun Sister Sarah, through the stretch. Erema, Louis Wagner, would have been below that the stretch five lengths behind them. far as the apparent contenders were concerned.

Battiste seemed to try hard with her, but the time of the race was the worst of the day. The dog 2-year-old Doctor Kammer-ran five furlongs in 1:15%, pulled up, which showed the track to be about 1½ seconds slow. However, an account to the showed the track to be about 1½ seconds slow. Foundling ran the first six furlongs around two sharp turns in 1:15½, a half second slow. Foundling ran the first six furlongs around two sharp turns in 1:15½, a half second slow. The track was only two seconds slow to the mile and three-sixteenths in the last race. Elss Quick is a wonder at 16 to 1, but a dog at 3 to 2. Sister Sarah was not played. She was off the farm but a month and was having her first start in three months.

Cil Curry, her owner, did not think his filly had a chance. He bet is streight and is to show on har as a compliment to a filly who is named after his favorite sister. Miss Sarah Curry.

'I thought Kles Quick at 3 to 1 was the best thing I over say," said Mr. Curry.

Though warned that Port Royal was a mean-tempered horse, and though they could see that he was low in flesh, many good bettors played him yesterday on the strength of his fast races in the East. Huntressa, whom Ethylene could always beat, went East, ran miles in 188 2-5 and gave Blues, the great handicap horse, weight and a beating. Don't let these Eastern cracks worry you.

Two of C. C. Baker's colts showed immense improvement vesterday. Gaslighter began slowly, but finished like a house aftire. Jack Young was another colt compared to his race over seven furlongs the other day. Both will bear watching over

A filly which it will pay bettors to watch is Mabel Richardson. She was our under a stable boy named Hasck last time. It was a good lot and she could not have won, but she was very fresh at the end and the boy would not pull her up until she ran a quarter of a mile more than the seven furiongs the race called for. She was fighting for her head then. Mabel Richardson is a nice looking, well turned filley and she will win when placed right.

Louden has been well spoken of as a rider London has been well spoken of as a rider. His efforts at Delmar do not justify this reputation. His long suit seems to be to run last on well-played horses. He is absolutely motionless in the saddle, has no life in his arms or less and yet they say that he is an awfully good boy.

"Why did you take Ethylene into the mud on the rall instead of taking the dry center track for yours" a man asked Jockey Bonner after the fourth race.

REGAN-ATTELL BOUT POSSIBLE. Affair May Be Scheduled This Month-Fifth Race-Hark Forward, Cock Robin, Jim

General Talk of the Fighters. Although no bout has been positively scheduled for the West End Club, Septem ber 2, there is a possibility that Attell and Johnny Regan will be brought together on surprise at Hariem to-day, winning the first race in handy fashion at odds of 25

Johnny Regan will be brought together on that date if both men are willing. President Haughton was not overly anxious to bring the men together at first, on account of their recent connection with the same training camp, but Attell's separation from McKenna and Regan is so evidently permanent that he may decide to arrange the fight.

It is certain that some bout will be brought off on that date, so that returns from the McGovern-Corbett battle can be read as an added feature of the contest. Dave Sullivan intends to be at the ringside in Louisville on that date, so Haughton's idea of having him here to meet Attell on that date has been set aside. Sullivan will come direct to this city after the bout and will probably appear here September 2.

Regan and Attell seem likely to afford a fair contest for that occasion, and there is a strong chance that they will be matched.

begging in the betting, even at the liberal price offered against him. He showed a wonderful turn of speed, leading into the stretch by five lengths. He was tiring fast at the end of the five-furlong journey, however, though he lasted long enough to beat Rankin, a 30-to-1 chance, a scant length in a hard drive.

Lacrimae recently barred (except in stake engagements) because of her in-andout running, won the Cicero Stakes at a mile in a canter from Major Dixon, who beat Ethel Wheat ten lengths for the place. Lacrimae was favorite at 8 to 5. Weather cloudy, track slow.

HARLEM SUMMARY:

Regan and Attell seem likely to afford a fair contest for that occasion, and there is a strong chance that they will be matched.

Abel and Attell meet to-morrow evening at the club and if condition counts for anything, the men should put up a good fight. Both have been working faithfully and each claims to be able to make the weight without difficulty. Attell will have his work cut out for him this time, as it is generally admitted that if Abel can get to him the fight will be over shortly.

Attell has promised to mix things up with Abel and this is advanced as one of the features of the bout. Most followers of the game believe that Attell will change his mind about mixing after the first interchange, however. Abe has never shown yet that he can hit anywhere near as hard a blow as Abel, and fight lovers are dubloud about his ability to get lipto close work with the Chicago man, and have any hopes of winning the bout.

Abel's sole defeat in his ring career was the adverse decision received in Chicago when he boxed tix rounds with Attell. This doss not dispose him over favorably toward the Ban Francisco boxer, and it is a certainty that he will try to best of his ability to dispose of Attell decisively.

The fact that Buddy Ryan could only draw with Jack O'Keefe in Chicago Monday evening has boosted St. Louis Tommy Sullivan's stock considerably in a pugliistic way. Sullivan stayed twenty rounds with O'Keefe, and put up a good fight against his more seasoned opponent. Buddy Ryan, touted as a coming featherweight championship possibility, has trouble in staying six rounds and getting a draw.

The result of Monday's fight has effectually killed Buddy Ryan's chances of appearing in this city. He was talked of as a possible opponent for Dave Sullivan here on the twenty-ninth, but if he can do no better than draw with O'Keefe, he is evidently of no use locally. President Haughton announced last night that he had dismissed Ryan from his mind as a contender at the club.

Sullivan can defeat him he will be able to do bett

Two answers were received yesterday at this office to Jack Strong's announcement that he would like to meet some hantam wrestier on the mat. Joe Yanger of No. 1215 South Broadway is the first to take up Strong's defi, and announces that he has a hoy Frank Thanthelier by name, who will meet him any time within three weeks at 116 pounds, ringside.

William Schmaitz, the local wrestler, has a man he would like to send against him at 135 or 118 pounds. Schmaiz is willing to match his protege catch-as-catch-can style, best two out of three falls. George Eaptiste will oversee signing of articles for the bout. To Fight to a Finish.
